ORDER REGARDING SHACKLING AT PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

U.S. Marshals Action Required

A pretrial conference will be held in this matter on July 10, 2017. The U.S. Marshals have requested permission to restrain in-custody defendants using leg shackles during that hearing. The Court finds that there is a compelling government interest in ensuring the safety of all individuals in the courtroom, including defendants, counsel, and courthouse staff. There will be seven in-custody defendants present at the hearing, along with seven out-of-custody defendants. The U.S. Marshals also expect that family members or other members of the public may be present. In addition, all in-custody

1 defendants are facing a mandatory minimum sentence of ten years'
2 imprisonment based on the conspiracy charge reflected in count one of 3 the superseding indictment in this matter. Due to the security risks 4 presented by the large number of defendants and other individuals who 5 will be present in the courtroom and the nature of the charges in this 6 case, the Court finds that using leg shackles is the least restrictive 7 means possible for maintaining security and order in the courtroom and 8 accomplishing the Court's compelling interest in ensuring the safety
9 of everyone in the courtroom. In addition, because this hearing is a 10 pretrial conference, there is no possibility of jurors being biased
11 based on shackling, and the Court therefore finds that any prejudice 12 to Defendants' rights will be limited and is justified by the 13 compelling security interests at stake.

14 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: At the July 10, 2017 pretrial
15 conference, the U.S. Marshals shall place all in-custody defendants in 16 leg shackles during the hearing.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk's Office is directed to enter this 18 Order and provide copies to all defense counsel.

19 DATED this 10th day of July 2017.
